Knox County Fish and Game Scholarship Application

We are very pleased to be offering a scholarship in the amount of $500.00 to a student in the graduating class or past graduate of this school. All students are eligible for this scholarship. All applications will be processed and taken into consideration.

Those students going into the environmental studies, conservation, warden service, forestry, etc. will be given priority. If there are no students going into these related fields all applications will then be judged on grades, financial needs, membership in Knox County Fish and Game Association, volunteering in the community, etc.

Requests for our scholarship has to be on our application form and fully completed to be considered.

The prevailing student will be given a certificate with the amount of the scholarship and instructions on how and when to receive payment.

Respectfully;

Karen Hoffses,
Chairman of the Scholarship Committee
Knox County Fish and Game
